Frozen Dreams Cori Williams

My life was perfect. I had everything I wanted, including the love of a man that intended to make all of my dreams come true. Until... "...the night my life as I knew it ended." In the blink of an eye, all I'd once known was ripped away. Suffering in limbo, full of fear and regret, I had only memories and dreams to comfort me, urging me to fight. "...marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled..." But they stole it all. Awakened to betrayal and pain, I struggle to find a new beginning. Yet the past seeps in, pulling me under. No matter how hard I try to keep my head above water, it threatens to ruin me. How can I really live with my hopes for the future still frozen? And if the ice thaws, will I have the courage to build new dreams?
