As Dr. Robinson states, If I may be permitted to advise in respect to the mode of using this little volume, I would strongly recommend, that it be read and studied chiefly as a companion of the Bible, and always with the Bible in the hand; and that every reference to the sacred volume be immediately looked out, and the passages, or the sense of them, faithfully impressed upon the memory. In this way, not only will a great amount of biblical knowledge be acquired by degrees, but the mind of the learner, by thus comparing the statements of facts with the authorities on which they rest, is ever gaining discipline and strength, and learning to "prove all things, and hold fast that which is good.
