Letters from a farmer in Pennsylvania, to the inhabitants of the British colonies John Dickinson

"I AM a FARMER, settled after a variety of fortunes, near the banks, of the river Delaware, in the province of Pennsylvania. I received a liberal education, and have been engaged in the busy scenes of life: But am now convinced, that a man may be as happy without bustle, as with it. My farm is small, my servants are few, and good; I have a little money at interest; I wish for no more: my employment in my own affairs is easy; and with a contented grateful mind, I am compleating the number of days allotted to be my divine goodness."

This is an edition of a classical book first published in the eighteenth century.
