Janine Bartolino has a pristine reputation to maintain. Responsible for managing her late father’s philanthropic interests, she has always kept both feet firmly planted on the side of staid and reserved. So when her friends surprise her on her birthday with a visit to an exclusive club that indulges in voyeurism and exhibitionism, she’s shocked—but oh so intrigued. Especially when she meets the sexiest man she’s ever laid eyes on who offers her the chance of a lifetime to indulge in her secret desires.

Philippe “Del” Delacroix is intrigued by Janine, and knows exactly what she needs—the chance to explore this exciting, sensual new world. It isn’t long before Janine becomes the passionate lover Del knew she could be—and everything he’d been looking for in a partner. But when something happens that could put everything she holds dear in jeopardy, Del has to convince Janine that taking a chance on love is the greatest risk of all.
