Dr. Ben Carson Is Right: A Muslim Shouldn't Be President Of America J. Ross

OVERVIEW: This book focuses on America's history from her original discovery in the New World, through her colonial and Revolutionary War Era leading to invention of the world's first constitution. The truth is extensively footnoted about her solidly Christian heritage that extended for centuries through her best days of the Route 66 Era. Then the undoing of our nation's fabric is detailed beginning with court cases in the 1960s that, in effect, legally threw God out of America. THE NEED FOR THIS BOOK came about after the mainstream media created a furor during the 2016 Presidential Campaign when asking Dr. Ben Carson a "gotcha" question about his views on whether our president's faith should matter, especially if he happened to be Muslim. As an experienced trial attorney, often representing the underdog, the author felt bound to come to Dr. Carson's defense – hence, this book. AUDIENCE: It is geared toward anyone desiring to gain detailed knowledge and insights into the religion of Islam from its invention through today, its tenets, and whether the Koran is compatible with the Bible-based U.S. Constitution, freedom, and democracy. Is it truly a religion of peace as recent president's claim? READERS OF THIS BOOK will become so educated on these issues as to become local experts on American and Islamic history as they pertain to its title: Dr. Ben Carson Is Right – A Muslim Shouldn't Be President Of America.
