light in the dark ages . In art ,warfare , learning ,bulding and administration his reign recalled some of the achievements of the roman Empire and anticipated those of later , more stable times. These two biograhies make a fascinating contrast: Einhard's , the main biographical source , is the brilliantly expressed memoir of a diplomat who spent twenty -three years in Charlemagne's service . Notker's is an anthology of monkish anecdotes which convey vividly the flavour of life in the dark ages . In Notker's less apocryphal stories Charlemagne is already half-way to his apotheosis in the epics of the later middle ages.../best value on this vintage book no crease in the spine/tight binding /light to no tanning /fast shipping all around the world /outstanding customer service
