Way Over The Hill: More Hilarious Jokes & Quotes About Aging George Dorn

Wondering whether your doctor's actually out of diapers yet? Giving some thought to measuring your age by laughter lines rather than birthdays? Remember when it was several rooms per computer, and not vice-versa? You may be Way Over The Hill...!

Still, it could be worse. At least you've got a great excuse to refuse those darned family picnics, and besides, as George Burns said, "Glad to be here? At my age, I'm glad to be anywhere."

The thing is, when it comes to aging, there's no time off for good behavior. So you might as well settle back with this excellent selection of humor and insight – collected by author George Dorn – and have some fun. Inside, you'll find wit and wisdom on all manner of topics related to getting older, divided into convenient categories for your every whim. With over a thousand quotes and jokes, you're in for a great time.

If you like Over The Hill, you'll also love Great Jokes by Jim Cartwright, a hilarious book of jokes on all sorts of topics – and remember to pick up the other volumes in the fabulous Over The Hill series.
