One Lady, two dashing gentlemen, and a duel for her hand.

Lady Catherine Dalton is a woman torn between two men. One is Duke Rotham, to whom she has been promised. The other is a soldier named Dominick, Catherine's childhood love. Dom is sent away for half a year, and, as she waits for her love to return, Catherine must come to grips with the fact that she will soon be married to the Duke.

As she goes back and forth between the two men - in her head, in her heart, and in their bedchambers - she must come to terms with the fact that Dom may not be the man she thought he was, and he may not be the man for her.
