Duffle Bag Boy is a story out of Richmond, based on true events told by Thurgood Johnson. Good is a young man who graduated from high school and straight into the streets. As he enters the streets he encounter endless amounts of characters. He enjoys the vast amounts of money and women he obtained. But the streets are not all fun and games, as Good finds out fast. Everybody around Good starts to go to jail and now Good suspects it's a snitch right there in his own hood. Will Good Make it through the streets without dying or going to jail like everyone else?

Characters:

Jacob aka Jay: a white boy from Good's hood, he moved to the hood to live with his dad. Good befriended Jay in their childhood because he was the first person who he ever seen cuss in front of their parents and get away with it he thought that was the coolest.

Koob: He was like six years older than Good and Jay, he lived in Jay's hood. Everybody say he's crazy because he was the type of person who can be your best friend one day and the next day be worst enemy.

David: the guy every hood kid wanted to be had plenty money, girls and plenty drugs. He got family up north, so he takes a lot of trips to visit his family and for good reasons. Its a known fact that the prices were cheaper up north.

Mannie: he lived across the street from Koob, he was like 40 something, big, weighed about 275, dark skinned with a bald head he talked with a slur it was like he couldnt say the h sound and he added a t in front of most his words.

Dert: pronounced like dirt, A flashy hustler who drove rental cars and visited Good's hood often to kick it with Koob.

Klyde: a tall guy with cornrows, he even still had his jail glasses on so looked like a tall grown ass nerd. Another business partner of Good.
