One after the other

The silence was broken only when the Captain in a dizzy slur, "Do you two always have to be barbaric? God, whatever happened to the good old 'Let's talk about it?'"

"Frankly, you deserve the punch, Hook," Gaston the Beast said.

"Maybe not so much the wall," Prince Eric added, "but you did."

The Captain slowly stood up from his bed, rolling his eyes as he did. "Fine, fine," he said. "But look at my beautiful face! Now I have to wear that stupid eyepatch almost every pirate captain wears."

"Well, aren't you lucky you're a pirate?" Prince Phillip said, and all of them, except John, Tarzan and the Captain, laughed.

"Aren't you the smart arse?" the Captain retorted, after which he invited the men to some drinks before they went back to their business meeting.

"I think I should decline," Tarzan said. "Look at me. Just a few drops of wine from dinner and I already punched a hole in your beautiful wall. I am sincerely sorry for the damage, Captain."

Captain Hook shrugged. "Think nothing of it. I would have punched a hole in the wall too if I needed to stay in one room with these lads." He laughed this time but no one else did too. His merriment cut short, the Captain looked back at Tarzan and asked, "Do you really not want to join us?"

Tarzan shook his head.

"I think I should walk him to our room," John said but Tarzan told him not to bother.

"Well then, have a good night's rest, Tarzan," Captain Hook said and the others bid him farewell as well.

"I'll wait for you in our room," Tarzan told John before he left.

"I won't be for long," John said to which Tarzan replied, "I highly doubt that." They smiled at each other and Tarzan proceeded out the door.

"Cute, you two, aren't you?" the Captain said.

"Shut up, Hook," John told him. "Let's get to business, shall we?"

Tarzan was right. John did not go back to their room until the early hours of the morning. At the end of the night, the only thing that was agreed upon was that the Captain remains the head of the operations of the ship, but only pirate-wise. When it comes to business matters, John will be the deciding factor since his partners thought of him as a just fellow.

"How do you feel about the responsibility?" Tarzan asked while they lied naked side by side, the first rays of sunshine peering through the windows of their room.

"Like I could rule the world," John said, an unknown sparkle set on his eyes.
