Sixpence in Her Shoe and Other Stories Maura Treacy

Maura Treacy was born in Co. Kilkenny in 1946. She has had a number of short stories published in the Irish Press New Irish Writing and she won the Writers' Week in Listowel Short Story Competition in 1974. This book is one of a series devoted to the modern Irish short story. Ireland's contribution to the short story is world famous, but much of the best work both of the acknowledged masters and of the new hands is either out of print or has never been published in book form. The aim of this series is to make that work generally available.
