The Justifying Judgement of God: A Reassessment of the Place of Judgement in the Saving Work of Christ (Paternoster Theological Monographs) Justyn Charles Terry

The argument of this book is that judgment, understood as the whole process of bringing justice, is the primary metaphor of atonement, with others, such as victory, redemption and sacrifice, subordinate to it. Judgment also provides the proper context for understanding penal substitution and the call to repentance, baptism, eucharist, and holiness.
