Wanna know what she is really thinking when it comes to matters of the heart? If you are like most men when it comes to women, they are a complete mystery. This volume of The Love Den Mini Series will help to decode what's going on in her head when she's being super quite or silently giving you the side eye.

Keep in mind that all secrets won't apply to every situation or to every woman however in many cases the rules or the game never changes.

Find out how she really feels about you looking at other women, back breaking sex, and those toe nails that you refuse to clip.

Bear in mind that this is not a man bashing book, but rather a guide to helping you better understand the lady in your life. If while reading though the secrets you start to weigh in your relationship and come to the realization that not only is she doing some of the same annoying things to you, she's also not worthy of the behavioral changes needed to keep the relationship a float. It's time to either work on the larger issues at hand or keep moving. If she's not worth putting fourth an effort to improve the relationship you need to ask yourself why are you still with her?

This book was written for the men who have women in their lives who truly love and appreciate them. It's not about power plays or one upping each other. Each person deserves to be treated with dignity and respect. If you have a good woman at home and you know it, do her and yourself a favor and keep reading. Unlock the secrets.
