Foundations for Life: Confident Living in Light of the Truth Stu Kinniburgh

Have you found yourself silent in a discussion when issues of faith are mentioned? Do you hear or read things and wonder if they represent truth in the Bible? Foundations for Life offers a biblical explanation for what a Believer should know about his faith. The book is not overwhelming - at 150 pages it is very readable with everyone's busy schedules. It is not written like a textbook - it tries to simplify concepts and communicate quickly and easily. It uses a technique used by the military called a "programmed text" - you read a little, then answer a question that allows you to zone-in on what is most important in the preceding paragraphs. There is an evaluation at the end of the book to show you how much you've learned. You WILL be able to answer and defend the essential questions of what Christians believe. Live confidently, in the Light of the Truth!
