Grace Has Provided All Things According to The Living Will of the Father

About This Book

This book was written almost four years ago for students at Teach Me to Pray With Christ-Online School of Prayer. The purpose of this book was to teach people how to reflect upon communion to receive breakthrough where they are. At first, when I began to study the Scriptures from Matthew 26 from what we know as the Lord's Last Supper I began to receive revelation of a court room trial.

For example when we read: Matthew 26

26 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

> The word took means: Put to trial. Here we learn that as we partake of communion we reflect upon the Greatest Trial the world would ever know, "Jesus upon the Cross and His finished works" and so much more !

>The word blessed means: All disputes are settled. Here, we learn through the finished works of the cross if the desires of our heart have already purchased by Grace, they are given to us freely. Here, we celebrate redemption by faith through Grace, and so much more !

More About the Book: Bible Mannerisms and Customs

This book also talks about studies that I did on topical discussions about the myths of communion. Questions such as:

1. What does it mean to eat unworthily? Does it really mean what it says? Here, I answer from a custom point of view to help you understand "It is not what most think, and it this helps us understand all the more reason to partake of communion."
2. Can you take communion at home, without clergy? Here, I discuss customs in which the text was written and more.

Student Interaction:

After spending time with students behind the scenes for over a year practicing and leading each one in communion I came to realize that communion is a way of "Proclaiming the Gospel of Grace as a service on it's own." Each time I partook of communion with students and received feedback I realized that the testimonies of breakthrough for them was the most rewarding part of being at Online School of Prayer. It is here I taught them to use communion to bring their "Prayer Needs" into communion for breakthrough.

Communion: A Way of Powerful Breakthrough Prayers of Faith

As we continue to look into the same Scriptures from the Book of Matthew we read, "Jesus took bread and blessed the bread." Here, the word blessed means to "Make your petitions known." Here, it is part of the "Trial of Communion" that I taught people how to make their petitions known. Moreover, "Jesus broke the bread" which means to shatter death and multiply Life by Grace.

It was there I walked students through "Petition praying with powerful breakthrough prayers."

In conclusion: How to Read This Book

This book is written in three sections, which include:

Section One: Bonus Chapter, Scripture Devotions of Encouragement and Strength

Section Two: Bonus Chapter, Scripture Devotions on Prayer and Knowing God's Will

Section Three: Feature Presentation

After teaching students for over a year before I presented this book I have come to realize one of the desires of people to have when they read a book is to have it in digest form. Scripture Devotions are student favorites and that is why I wrote them and presented the way I did in this book. I pray it is a blessing to you, to give that extra digest of meditation in God's Word.

If this book is purchased at Online School of Prayer instead of Amazon you will be able to receive free audio mp3 that will help coach you in the Secret Place, and partake of communion with Sister Lara in our Healing Room.
