Seek My Face: Poems About The Holocaust Anna Fojtel

Anna Fojtel's collection Seek My Face: Poems About The Holocaust marks the arrival of a highly original new voice in what might be called the poetry of post-memory. These poems show us the pressure of the past on the present in the form of unforgettable imagery. Holocaust, it is a word that comes from the Greek, to silence by fire. It is a word to mourn with, to weep with, to pray with. These poems carry a message to call an end to murder and genocide, senseless hatred and violence. Not to be silenced.
