Hip Haiku Punch Saleem Clarke

Hip Haiku Punch is a compilation of short poems called haiku, a form which originated in Japan and uses a three line format of 5-7-5 syllables. As a failed emcee, Jahili felt the need to express his thoughts through a more traditional (non-traditional for some) poetic form, thus we have Hip Haiku Punch. Most rappers use punch lines in their lyrics, these punches usually contain references to popular culture and current events. His haikus intend to pack the same punch but in a more condensed form. I Hope you feel this Hip Haiku Punch!
