FlexOnomics + ThinkOnomics with Dentonomics: 101 Donald Jay Denton

The book is structured for the individual who really desires and wants success. It is designed to help one become wiser and smarter than the average bear on the competitive street, while striving to achieve and maintain success. Then once one is successful, shows how to prevail and capitalize upon that success, and become the controller of one's career environment. This book blends knowledgeable class room theories and principals with practical experiences and street sense applications that are needed to move forward in one's career, and not just survive. The information will be quite beneficial to the go-getter ambitious person willing too learn and step forward to take the trip, by paying the price for real and lasting success. The book will direct one on how to be wiser and smarter in the areas of marketing, finance, business and law. It will also deal with basic economic, tax, investing and government issues affecting one's potential and actual riches and wealth as to estate, probate and marital issues.
