A comedy of horrors surrounds the OneStop convenience store. After midnight the customers seem just a little odd. Well, actually VERY odd. Vampires, werewolves, Chutulu, zombies and a plethora of other classic horror characters visit the store. "The Apocalypse Shift" is like a combination of "Clerks" and "Buffy the Vampire Slayer". You're in for one helluva treat. A must read for any fan of the genre. Among the Living is a raging tale of zombie carnage with characters who's story lines work on a much deeper level. Check it out!" -Eric S. Brown "Most zombie fiction is rife with smart dark humor but seldom do I laugh out loud when deep in the thrall of a good zombie tale." -Horror News - Big Daddy Dakness "I really loved the entire overall plot, the slow buildup of tension until the city explodes in mayhem, the characterization as a whole, and the gory, action-packed scenes toward the end. This is a good, solid zombie book and I highly recommend it." -Rhiannon Frater
