He was the same as I remembered him, only this time, he wanted my husband

The quarterback I used to date back in school has gone professional. And he's just been traded to the local team. Unsure if he would even remember me after all these years, we go to a team practice where he recognizes me. He looks at my husband the same way he looked at me years ago. I already know my husband won't say no to his favorite player. But what does the quarterback want from my husband? And is my husband willing to give it to him?
