CONSEQUENCE Mina S. Love

I love going against the norm, going against the grain, being rebellious. I don't believe in consequence. I'm sure that way of thinking will cost me one day...

Adriana Baldwin, a successful psychologist, lives life the way she wants, when she wants, and plays by her own set of rules, especially when it comes to men. She's rebellious; even as a teen, she chose to do what she wanted, when she wanted, not concerning herself with the consequences. Now, a grown woman, she has a thirst for powerful men, men with prestige, men who are in control; but when the love of her life returns, her passions change.

Grayson Carter is a successful dentist in Manhattan, living the life he has always wanted. But he is haunted by his obsession with the one woman who changed his life. When Grayson returns, he is determined to win back her love. His obsession with her accompanied by his dark passions, drive him to become more than she could ever want. But her insatiable actions lead them into a world of intense mistrust, uncontrollable passions, betrayal, and possibly murder.

Will love survive or will their mistakes, past and present, be too much for them to overcome?

There are moments in life when you have to save yourself...from yourself.
