If he wanted me to stop, he would have said something, so I took it as my invitation to keep going.

Five years. That's a long time to be away from the man of your dreams. Even if her feelings are taboo, Miranda can't keep her mind off of her forbidden crush. She hasn't seen him in so long, but now that he's finally back to spend the summer with her, she can finally tell him how she really feels.

It's a hot summer, and it's only going to get hotter as Miranda works up the courage to finally make Robert hers. She's not going to let him get away again. Not without giving him a taste of what he would be leaving behind.
