View From My Window is a book of inspirational quotes and affirmations, one for each day of the year. For several years, while the author was an active minister, she wrote a short daily inspirational message for her congregation. The audience for those messages grew so she decided the time had come to put them into book form. This book is the result. The author loved writing the messages and loved hearing from recipients when something particularly touched them, sometimes even creating a transformation. Her hope is that the messages in this book will inspire its readers and enrich their lives.
